Tech Age Girls
Myanmar
2016
Empowering girls for the information Society
THE TECH AGE NEEDS MORE GIRLS

INEQUALITY

- 23% fewer women than men are online in the developing world
- 85-90% of new jobs will require digital skills by 2020
- 40% of women who don't use the internet blame lack of familiarity or comfort with technology

UNEQUAL ACCESS + UNEQUAL SKILLS = UNEQUAL EDUCATIONAL AND ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES
Tech Age Girls (TAG) is a program for girls aged 16-20 to improve technology and leadership skills, expanding their education and employment opportunities and helping them become leaders in their communities.
Why I want to be a Tech Age Girl?

- Learn new technology
- Help your community
- Explore new opportunities
TAG Highlighted Achievement

During TAG phase-1 activities in ‘Sutakami Library’.

Learning and Sharing!
During TAG phase-2 activities!

- This is a small program called “Built Up Knowledge”
TAG phase-2 workshop activities!

- 5 day workshop to the academic teacher base on Internet Usage.
What is next?

• Can we make internet and tech available to everyone?
• There’s a growing barrier to young women learning and using tech.
• Based on experiences from this pilot program, we request Government body to work together with us for the program on a nationwide basis.
Let’s move forward together!
Thank You.
