

PRESENTERS & SPEAKERS

Dr. Ing. Kenneth Ashigbey FCE, FGIM, PMP, Cert IoD, MloD, is the Chief Executive Officer of the Ghana Chamber of Telecommunications .

Prior to his appointment, he was Managing Director of Graphic Communications Group Ltd. Before then he was the Chief Operating Officer for Multi TV, General Manager of JoyFm as well as the Chief Technology Officer of the group at different times. In between his time at Multimedia, he was also Managing Director of Optimum Media Prime, a media independent and marketing company. He left Fanel Ltd, a building services engineering company as a Senior Projects Engineer.

Kenneth has a PhD in Business Administration from the Swiss Management Centre. He holds an MBA from the Leicester University (UK) and a BSc in Electrical/Electronic Engineering from the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology. He had his secondary education at St. Augustine's College.

SHORT BIOGRAPHY OF MR. APPIAHENE PETER, LECTURER AT DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND INFORMATICS, UNIVERSITY OF ENERGY AND NATURAL RESOURCES SUNAYNI-GHANA

Appiahene Peter is a renowned scholar of international repute with a Bachelor's degree in Information Technology (IT) and Master of Philosophy in Information Technology. Appiahene Peter is a Lecturer at the Department of Computer Science and Informatics in the University of Energy and Natural Resources, Sunyani-Ghana. He is a research fellow at the Earth Observation Research and Innovation Center (EORIC)-UENR. Mr. Appiahene has been working as a consultant and researcher with six years' experience in the area of ICT. He is the System & Application Development Officer for a project group working on a project founded by the Skills Development Fund (SDF2) to upscale the Advanced Fire Information System (AFIS) project. He is an editorial board member of three International refereed journals and has also served as a reviewer for international conferences such as 2016 Global Summit on Computer & Information Technology-Tunisia, 2nd International Conference on Computer Applications & Information Security (ICCAIS), and 2017 World Symposium on Computer Applications & Research Istanbul-Turkey etc. He has over 20 publications which have appeared in international referred journals, conference proceedings, and news articles. He has made presentation at conferences such as the International Conference on Artificial Intelligence and Soft Computing (ICAISC) Munich-Germany, 4th GEO Data Technology Conference in Vienna-Austria, 11th European Conference on Game Based Learning in Graz, Austria, and the 2016 Conference on Teaching Large Classes Virginia-USA etc. His main research interest includes ICT4D, Artificial Intelligence, Data Science, Cloud Computing, Sentiment Analysis and Gamification. He is an accredited member of the following professional bodies;

1. Alliance for Affordable Internet.
2. Regional Studies Association-United Kingdom
3. Certified Oracle Java Programmer.
4. IEEE Computer Society
5. International Association of Engineers (IAENG)
6. Information Technology Association of Ghana (ITAG)
7. Internet Society of Ghana
8. Ghana Science Association

Dr. Bello Moussa is the head of innovation and ICT strategies at Huawei Southern Africa. His unit is responsible for design and implementation of new solutions and new technologies aimed at supporting developing countries in unleashing digital opportunities for inclusive development. These include solutions relating to broadband infrastructure, wireless telecom protocols, wireless product portfolio management & development, solution strategy for IoT, 4.5G & 5G markets expansion and operational consultancy for Eastern Europe,

Middle East and Africa.

Dr. Kwaku Oforu-Adarkwa is the National Coordinator of the A4AI-Ghana Coalition. He is also Managing Director at 25th Century Technology Limited. A strategic and visionary thinker who has value for people and continuous organizational development and learning through the application of ICT. Analytically skillful in public policy, organizational development and management.

Mrs Ursula Owusu-Ekuful is currently the Honourable Minister for Communications and also serves as the Member of Parliament for Ablekuma South Constituency within the Greater Accra District in Ghana. Mrs Owusu-Ekuful was a managing consultant prior to serving as the Chairperson for the Social Development Sector Committee – a committee responsible for the development of policy interventions for women, children, persons with disability, etc.

Onica N. Makwakwa
Head of Africa, Alliance for Affordable Internet
World Wide Web Foundation

Leads the multi-stakeholder engagement across Africa for the Alliance for Affordable Internet focusing on advancing good practices in policy and regulatory frameworks for affordable access to broadband.

A consumer, civil and digital rights advocate, Onica has managed and pioneered various national and international campaigns and policy change processes for women's rights, civil rights, consumer rights, media and digital transformation initiatives. She brings a strong sensitivity and unique perspective to the dynamics affecting women, and other disadvantaged populations.